FOOTBALL UNIVERSITY NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Youth Football's Biggest Event

WHO WE ARE

Since 2001, the FBU National Championship Tournament has celebrated and promoted youth football through uniting All-Star Student-Athletes of all backgrounds from across the United States in a true, one-of-a-kind national football tournament. The only tournament of its kind, the annual postseason competition crowns a national champion at the 6th, 7th and 8th grade levels.

The FBU National Championship Tournament is one of the on the FBU Path that leads to Regional and National events such as the All-American Bowl on NBC, National Combine and Freshman All-American Bowl.

EXPOSURE AND NATIONAL PLATFORM

The FBU National Championship Tournament provides the best representation of talent from all across the country in each grade level every year. The very top of the talent pool is represented on the #PathToNaples in what has become the very glimpse at a national level to the next generation of elite football prospects.

The importance of postseason football for middle school football players has increased exponentially.
